Dear Sir or Madam

LEGAL ETHICS COMPLAINT AGAINST MARK HOPKINS & SHELLEY HOPKINS of HOPKINS LAW, PLLC, AUSTIN, TEXAS - Ref: #201903101 et al.

We now attach 3 forms which we received from Mr. Hsu of the State Bar of Texas on June 10th, some 3 weeks after the “dismissal date” of May 23, 2019 per the attached forms. The forms attached are;

John Burke Complaint Appeal Forms; re Mark Hopkins and Shelley Hopkins
Joanna Burke Complaint Appeal Form; Shelley Hopkins.

Missing is Joanna Burke’s form for Mark Hopkins which was never received. Joanna Burke wishes to record she is appealing against dismissal of Mark Hopkins complaint and if you can email or fax a form, it will be returned duly signed, if necessary, over and above this written confirmation.

We look forward to a timely response to our appeal. If you have any comments, questions or concerns related to the above, or our complaint, please contact us at the information shown below. Due to our age, we prefer communications via email or fax, as we find phone conversations difficult due to hearing impairment (and it is also faster than regular postal mail considering your noted time restraints in this matter).

Respectfully

/s/ J & J Burke

“The night before Carter was to testify against Graves, Carter told Sebesta that he had committed the murders alone. This statement necessarily excluded Graves as a participant in the murders. Sebesta never disclosed this information to the defense. This failure to disclose violated Disciplinary Rule 3.09(d).”

V. Conclusion

“The judgment of disbarment is affirmed.”
