Pro Se Appellants

Appellants, Joanna Burke and John Burke (“Burkes”), now file a Motion putting this court on notice that the Burkes called the Office of the Solicitor General in Washington, the details of the conversation have been detailed in the email copy shown below, wherein ‘Lynne’ advised John Burke that the office had NO RECORD of their Constitutional challenge on file and to send it over via email;

The Burkes doubt there is any ‘case law’ to refer to when the Federal Government has no record of this courts letter and enclosures of 19th September,

2019, nor the Burkes' direct letter to Washington, a copy of the return receipt is shown below;

The Burkes are perplexed and assume that this will necessitate 'restarting' the 60-day period of the Constitutional question for the US Federal Government (and Attorney General Wm. Barr's Office) and in order to comply with the law and even if this court were to release its order in the interim, it could not enter final judgment until the 60-day rule has been exhausted.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: Nov. 14th, 2019
