No. 18-60302 Consum Fincl Protc Bur v. All Amer Check
Cashing, Inc., et al
USDC No. 3:16-CV-356

Dear Mr. DeMille-Wagman and Ms. Walker,

Below is the court's response to appellants and appellee's joint letter filed on October 29, 2019 in 18-60302.

The court appreciates the joint letter requesting "clarification regarding the scope of the issues to be addressed at the December 4 oral argument." The court is allowing 30 minutes per side so that all of the issues still remaining in light of (1) Collins v. Mnuchin (en banc) and (2) the CFPB's change of position can be addressed. Although the court has ready access to the oral arguments presented in March 2019, the attorneys should argue their entire case without reliance on the March presentation (but mindful that no issue that has been briefed or is jurisdictional is waived). The attorneys should assume that the grant of certiorari in Seila Law has no effect on the scope of the matters to be presented on December 4, although either side is free to recommend that this case be postponed awaiting a decision in Seila Law.

Sincerely,

LYLE W. CAYCE, Clerk

Mary Stewart
