Biography

Sara Clark is an associate in Quinn Emanuel's Houston office. As a member of the firm's Latin American Practice Group, her practice focuses complex international commercial disputes, cross-border insolvency, international arbitration and white collar defense and investigations. She joined the firm in 2017 after completing a clerkship for the Honorable Priscilla R. Owen of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Her prior pro bono work focused on preparation and filing of petitions for federal habeas corpus on behalf of death-sentenced inmates in Texas.
