vs.	§	4:22-CR-00033-001

Heather Ann Campos	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A hearing in this matter was held on July 22, 2022. Assistant United States Attorney Jay Hileman appeared on behalf of the United States; JoAnne Musick appeared on behalf of Defendant Heather Ann Campos. At the hearing, Defendant acknowledged that he understands his right to a prompt detention hearing and to require the Government to meet its burden of proving that no conditions of release exist which will reasonably assure his appearance in court and the safety of the community. Defendant knowingly and voluntarily waived that right, on the record and through counsel. For good cause shown, Defendant’s request to waive the detention hearing is hereby GRANTED.

It is therefore ORDERED that:

- (1) Defendant be detained pending trial;
- (2) Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent

- practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal.
- (3) Defendant be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with counsel for his defense; and
- (4) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility deliver Defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.

Signed on July 22, 2022, at Houston, Texas.
