

CAUSE NO. 2022-12475

ELDON JOHNS,
Plaintiff

v.

ROBERT W. BERLETH,
BERLETH & ASSOCIATES, PLLC,
And NADIA BERLETH,
Defendants

§
§
§
§
§
§
§
§

IN THE DISTRICT COURT

OF HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

157TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

ORDER

On this day, the Court considered Robert W. Berleth and Berleth & Associates, PLLC's Motion to Quash service of process, the response, if any, and the evidence presented, and finds that the motion should be and is GRANTED^{in part}. It is therefore, ORDERED that service of process on Robert W. Berleth on July 2, 2022, is quashed as ineffective. It is further was valid and this Motion is denied in this regard.

ORDERED that service of process on Berleth & Associates, PLLC on March 9, 2022, is quashed as ineffective. It is further ORDERED that Robert W. Berleth and Berleth & Associates, PLLC shall have the Monday following twenty days (20) after the date this order is signed in which to file their its original answer.

SIGNED this _____ day of _____, 2022.

Signed:
10/14/2022

JUDGE PRESIDING

However, it appears that the Plaintiff has made diligent efforts to get the Defendants served and that the Defendants have made service difficult. As such, nothing in this order shall be used by any party to make any argument that service efforts lacked diligence.