ORDER ISSUING PREJUDGMENT WRIT OF GARNISHMENT

CAME ON TO BE HEARD, the application of Associated Energy Group, LLC (“AEG”) supported by the Affidavit of Chris Clementi, its Chief Operating Officer, plaintiff in this cause, for issuance of a prejudgment Writ of Garnishment ex parte.

After considering the pleadings and other papers on file with the Court, the evidence presented and the argument of counsel, the Court finds and concludes that AEG is entitled to a prejudgment Writ of Garnishment as requested, for the reason that Century Jets Aviation, L.L.C. (“Debtor”) debt to AEG is just, due and unpaid, Debtor does not possess property in Texas subject to execution sufficient to satisfy the debt, and the garnishment is not sought to injure Debtor or the garnishee. The Court further finds that issuance of the writ without prior notice to Debtor is justified in the circumstances for the reason that Debtor has no assets in the State of Texas such that AEG will not be able to satisfy any judgment that may be rendered in Cause No.

2023-24753A, styled Associated Energy Group, LLC v. Century Jets Aviation, L.L.C. now pending before this Court. It is therefore ORDERED that the clerk issue a Writ of Garnishment that commands Truist Bank (the “Bank”) as garnishee, to appear as required by law and answer on oath what, if anything, garnishee is indebted to Debtor and were when the writ was served and what effects, if any, of Debtor, the garnishee possesses and did possess when this Writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within the garnishees’ knowledge, are indebted to or have effects of Debtor. It is further ORDERED that the maximum value of property or indebtedness that may be garnished is $ 146,843.12 (One hundred forty-six thousand forty-three dollars and twelve cents). Further, the Writ shall command the Bank not to pay to Debtor any debt or to deliver any effects, pending further order of this Court, without retaining property of Debtor in an amount sufficient to satisfy and equal the maximum value of property or indebtedness that may be garnished as above ordered. It is further ORDERED that this Order shall not be effective unless and until AEG executes and files with the clerk a bond, in conformity with the law, in the amount of $ 1,500.00 (One thousand and five hundred dollars). It is further

ORDERED that Debtor, in order to replevy property garnished pursuant to Writ, shall file with the officer who levied the Writ a bond, in conformity with the law, in the amount of $ 146,843.12 (One hundred forty-six thousand forty-three dollars and twelve cents) unless Debtor files bond in an amount otherwise provided by the law and the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
