LIT Commentary

It is noted directly after the $160k embezzlement and theft of funds from her employer, the Campbell's did not waste any time in making a big money purchase, a new home – which they did immediately. It's only surprising to see the home is still in their name in July 2023.

Hi, I'm Tami Craft and my signature is service to the Harris County community!

WHERE I COME FROM

I am a native Houstonian and I am well equipped to be the judge of the 189th Civil District Court in my hometown, Houston, Texas. I attended Forest Brook High School where I graduated with honors in 1994.

I entered Texas A&M University in the Fall of 1994 with 12 college hours obtained during high school and went on to graduate from the University of Houston with a degree in Criminal Justice. I then attended South Texas College of Law where I held the position of Assistant Editor-In-Chief of South Texas' Law Review and was on the Dean's List several semesters all while raising 3 year-old twins. I also graduated from South Texas Law School in 2 years, instead of the typical 3 years.

In November of 2003, I was licensed in the state of Texas and I am currently licensed to practice in the Eastern, Northern and Southern Federal District Courts and the 1st, 13th and 14th Courts of Appeals. In June of 2017, I became licensed in the highest Court in the land, the United States Supreme Court. Only 10% of the over 700,000 in the United States are eligible to practice before the United States Supreme Court.

I am the first African American ever elected to the 189th Civil District Court. I have been a fighter for justice and equality since I was a teenager in the late 80's. In 1987, my cousin and his two small kids were murdered by his wife and the offender was sentenced to death row. The murders would change the trajectory of my life. During law school, the offender in my cousins' murders was sentenced to her death day in a Harris County courtroom, I was there. After her death day was set I went to the Harris County jail and visited the offender as she had vehemently expressed her innocence.

Again I am a fighter for justice and despite the fact that I was not making a popular decision within my family, I began a personal journey to ensure that my family would know the truth and ultimately receive justice. Too, I am not a proponent of the death penalty and the last thing I could consciously conceive was for an innocent woman to die for crimes she had not committed. In that light, I turned over every stone by interviewing the detectives, prosecutors (former U.S. Attorney, Ken Magidson), and other witnesses regarding the facts of the case. In the end the facts lead me back to the original offender and I attended the murderer's execution in Huntsville, Texas in 2005.

Since 2003, I have practiced and tried cases in many areas including: civil, criminal, family, education, labor and employment law, real estate and property tax law. I am married, the mother to 27 year old twins, and I am "YaYa" to two precious granddaughters. My family faithfully attends The Luke church. I am also a 24 year Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sorority, Incorporated woman where I am a charter member of Alpha Alpha Kappa Omega chapter of the sorority. As an AKA, my personal mission mirrors my sorority's mission which is to provide "SERVICE TO ALL MANKIND."

Update

The facts and content of this article will be updated as it is an active investigation.

Questions include: Why would Campbell put a forwarding address to Demming Law unless there was some kind of relationship?

Did Craft-Demming file these 10 plus notices asserting false claims over 'abandoned' properties because she found out these filings were causing a lot of negative interest?

Stay tuned, and if you have information to share on this topic or related information, please leave a comment or write to us via our contact form.

Fire Sale: Judge Tamika Craft and Marcus Demming Purchase Kingwood Property for $10 Bucks per Cash Deed

As Judge Tami Craft and Pamela Craft's Auto Accident Case Collapsed, In Stepped Randy Sorrels With an Offer

Laws In Texas first started as an independent investigative blog about the Financial Crisis and how the Banks and Government are colluding against the citizens and homeowners of the State of Texas, relying upon a system of #FakeDocs and post-crisis legal precedents, specially created by the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to foreclose on homeowners around this great State. We are not lawyers. We do not offer legal advice. That stated, LIT's Blog has grown tremendously during the three or so years it has been operating and our reach is now nationwide as we expand via our micro-blogs in various states. Join us as we strive to bring back justice and honor to our Judiciary and Government employees, paid for by Citizens.
