Subject: Notice of Criminal Activity by Officers of the Court in Grabner v. Freedom Mortgage Corporation
Date: Tuesday, March 19, 2024 4:06:00 PM

Attn: Judge Andrew Hanen (c/o Case Manager Rhonda Hawkins, and copying all counsel for transparency)

I am writing to bring to your attention concerning developments in the case of Grabner v. Freedom Mortgage Corporation (Case No: 4:24-cv-00915) currently before your court.

During a recent live-streamed session on X's social media platform, hosted by LIT (Laws in Texas) concerning the aforementioned case and related matters, significant concerns regarding potential criminal activity by officers of the court have come to light. Specifically, it has been observed that the attorneys representing Freedom Mortgage Corporation, Bradley Conway and Dustin George, in their motion to dismiss, have neglected to address glaring evidence of real estate fraud and non-disclosure which contravenes the terms of the non-exempt property loan in question.

Of particular concern is the ongoing fraudulent and unethical conduct allegedly perpetrated by sanctioned Texas lawyer Robert Clarence Newark and his client Roderick Kagy, as evidenced by documents in the Harris County real property records, including a "JV" agreement between the homeowner(s) and Kagy, trading under the alias "My Fresh Start, LLC."

Further details regarding these matters have been extensively covered in LIT articles, including the most recent publication titled;

"14 Years of Carnage and Corruption"

Additionally, specific information regarding the Grabner case and its implications can be found in the article;

"It's a Home Grab in Kingwood Texas"

It should be recognized that I, Mark Burke, as founder of Blogger Inc., and an investigative journalist, am actively documenting and providing updates on these instances of alleged fraud and unethical practices to both the courts and relevant government agencies, as well as to the media through my premier blog at LawsInTexas.com (LIT). Given the gravity of the situation, LIT asserts that this constitutes a criminal matter – as it reaches far beyond the current proceedings -warranting immediate attention, publication, and notification. Many of these associated cases are published on LIT. However, if you have any direct questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I respectfully request and urge the court consider this notice seriously and take appropriate action to ensure the integrity of the legal process. In the interim, LIT will ensure the public, press and government agencies are made aware of this complaint.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and acknowledgment of this formal written complaint by investigative journalist Mark Burke, on behalf of non-profit Blogger Inc., and it's Texas-based blog at LawsInTexas.com.

Sincerely,
Mark Burke
