PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO RESET INITIAL CONFERENCE

Plaintiff, Hassan Meguid, respectfully requests that the Court reschedule the initial conference due to the health reasons. This case is currently set for the initial conference to be held on November 1, 2024. Plaintiff is currently undergoing cancer treatment for the next six (6) weeks. The cancer treatment severely impacts Plaintiff's ability to participate in the proceedings effectively at this time. The medical note is attached. (Exhibit A). Defendant's counsel agreed to a reasonable continuance of this matter. (Exhibit B). Plaintiff moves the Court to reset the date of the initial conference to at least 30 days later. This continuance is not sought for delay but for the health reasons impacting Plaintiff's participation in the proceedings.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, respectfully requests that the Court GRANT this request for continuance.

DATED: October 30, 2024

Respectfully Submitted,

HASSAN MEGUID, Pro Se

Travis H. Gray,

Would you be opposed to resetting the initial conference scheduled on November 1, 2024? Rescheduling is for health reasons, as I am currently undergoing cancer treatment which would severely impact my ability to participate effectively at this time.

Regards,
Hassan Meguid
